Kai Carter Estates Newbury wins British Property Award

KAI Carter Estates, which specialises in selling exceptional properties in Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Hampshire, has received industry recognition for providing outstanding levels of customer service by winning The British Property Award for Best Agent in Newbury.

This prestigious award has more than 25 criteria involving mystery shoppers with a rigorous process and according to The British Property Awards: "Is simply down to the fantastic customer service levels that Kai Carter Estates have demonstrated across a prolonged period of time."

"Winning agents should be proud their customer service levels provide a benchmark for their local, regional and national competition."

Led by director Natalie Carter, Kai Carter Estates was established in 2019 and is located on Bartholomew Street in Newbury.

experience, they seek out exceptional homes that deserve a fresh approach to help them attract the right buyer, in good time.

Each property has its own personalised marketing strategy, using the latest in industry-leading marketing tactics.

Natalie, who prior to embarking on her career in real estate eight years ago held senior marketing roles with global companies, said, "As a relatively new agency we're absolutely delighted to receive this recognition from The British Property Awards."

"Our foundations are built on exceptional customer service and marketing, which has brought fantastic results for our clients, one of whom commented on the award 'no-one else can compete, so it's the right result!'"

She continues; "The award is testament to the desire for an elevated level of expertise in the property sector, rather than a one size fit all cookie cutter approach."

"We're also proactive in supporting sellers right the way through to completion."

"It's this commercial and well-rounded service that is being recognised and acting as a beacon to the local marketplace."
